

Dinners and Dances for Debutantes on Thanksgiving Eve

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Douglas
Introduce Daughter, Miss Jean Douglas.

Thanksgiving Eve was filled with incidents of particular interest to debutantes for whom several dinners and dances were given, not only in New York but in the suburbs. One of the largest dances was held in the main ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton by Mr. and Mrs. William Harris Douglas to introduce their daughter, Miss Jean Douglas, to the Rockaway Hunting Club by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Adams of Oak Lodge, Lawrence, L. I., to introduce their daughter, Miss Katherine V. Adams, and also for Miss Marion Shaw Fenno of Boston.

Another dance of last night was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman Hoyt for Miss Helen Phelps Hoyt, who is at home for the holidays on Bryn Mawr, but this was not a coming out party. The guests numbered about one hundred and were mainly undergraduates. In the afternoon Mrs. Jacques Cartier gave a large reception in the Colony Club to introduce to her many New York relatives and friends her daughter, Miss Dorothy Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas gave a small dinner in advance of their dance. The guests were Misses Gwendolyn Coombe, Jeanne Kerens, Cornelia O'Connor, Jeanne Bayne, and Elizabeth Clay. Mr. and Mrs. Douglas gave a small dinner in advance of their dance. The guests were Misses Gwendolyn Coombe, Jeanne Kerens, Cornelia O'Connor, Jeanne Bayne, and Elizabeth Clay.

Among others at the dance were Misses Adele Thompson, Constance and Cecilia Banks, Marion Gifford, Helen La Fette, Dorothy Thompson, Marie Meadows, Julia Shanley, Adele Sloane Hammond, Gladys Anderson, Virginia de Haven, Barbara Brokaw, Elizabeth Douglas, Helen Overbridge, Frances McCann, Marjorie Hughes, Elizabeth Sturges, Faith Bouhass, Dorothy Achille, Dorothy Williams, Margaret Stone of Pittsburgh, May Stoddard Yeomans, Gertrude Yeomans, Alice Bowker, Millicent Barnard, Elizabeth Warren Murphy, Alice McKim Voss, Mary Martha Plummer, Jean Flannery, Mary Trimble, Mary Almonte, Dorothea Schatkeroff of Philadelphia, Phyllis Hartman, Karen-Lis Larsen and Alice Gundry.

The dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adams at the Rockaway Hunting Club included Misses Allison Phillips, Ruth Anderson, Dolores Carver, Dorothy Stoddard, Margaret Stone of Pittsburgh, May Stoddard Yeomans, Gertrude Yeomans, Alice Bowker, Millicent Barnard, Elizabeth Warren Murphy, Alice McKim Voss, Mary Martha Plummer, Jean Flannery, Mary Trimble, Mary Almonte, Dorothea Schatkeroff of Philadelphia, Phyllis Hartman, Karen-Lis Larsen and Alice Gundry.

The young men of the party were Messrs. W. H. Hazard, E. Hamilton Hough, Jr., Frederick Phillips, H. M. McKee, Eric Hatch, Robert Prudhomme, William Linaw, William M. Beattie, James Jay Beattie, Horace De Rivera, Dodge Mapes, George P. Brockmorton, Carman Hewitt, Ludlow T. Lamm, Fenton B. Taylor, Robert Stout, John Ferguson, Oliver Evans, Irving Gilmore, Charles H. Hunter, George Lelure, Huntington Ehart, Elliott Marfield, James Hamilton, Stearns, Richard Stevenson and H. Louis Slade.

The reception held in the ballroom of the Colony Club by Mrs. Cartier for Miss Gaudy, Miss Helen Phelps Hoyt, and Misses Adele Thompson, Constance and Cecilia Banks, Marion Gifford, Helen La Fette, Dorothy Thompson, Marie Meadows, Julia Shanley, Adele Sloane Hammond, Gladys Anderson, Virginia de Haven, Barbara Brokaw, Elizabeth Douglas, Helen Overbridge, Frances McCann, Marjorie Hughes, Elizabeth Sturges, Faith Bouhass, Dorothy Achille, Dorothy Williams, Margaret Stone of Pittsburgh, May Stoddard Yeomans, Gertrude Yeomans, Alice Bowker, Millicent Barnard, Elizabeth Warren Murphy, Alice McKim Voss, Mary Martha Plummer, Jean Flannery, Mary Trimble, Mary Almonte, Dorothea Schatkeroff of Philadelphia, Phyllis Hartman, Karen-Lis Larsen and Alice Gundry.

MR. JOHN ASPEGREN BUYS NEWPORT PLACE Purchases the Brooks Estate Known as Rockhurst.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD, NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 23.—Mr. John Aspegren of New York City has bought through Andrews & Downey, the Brooks estate, known as Rockhurst. Mr. and Mrs. Aspegren spent their first season here last summer, occupying the Hawthorne villa, on Bellevue avenue, and they decided to purchase an estate. Mr. Aspegren stated to-day that the contract was made only last evening, despite rumors to the effect that the purchase had been made some time ago.

The villa belonged to the estate of Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks, and Mr. Aspegren has also purchased the furniture and interior decorations from the heirs. The estate is bounded by the largest places in the city, and besides the dwelling has the usual commodious garage and stables. It is taxed for $411,000.

SILO'S Fifth Ave. Art Galleries 40 E. 54th St. S. W. Cor. Vanderbilt Ave.

James F. Silo & Son, Auctioneers.

THE COLLECTION OF Baroness Hatch
Antique, Italian &
Dutch Furniture

Very Important Collection of Early Dutch Paintings
Valuable Porcelains, China,
Rugs, Etc.

ALSO
LOUIS XV. AND XVI.
MOUNTED BEDROOM
SUITES, ODD TABLES,
DESKS, Etc.

Removed from the old residence,
687 Fifth Ave., formerly occupied by
Mrs. W. M. B. LEEDS.

The majority of this Furniture
was then her property and sold
with the house.

A Collection of
ANTIQUE VIOLINS
SPANISH AND EARLY
AMERICAN FURNITURE

On Exhibition Saturday, Nov. 26,
Until First Sale Day, which will be
Wednesday, Nov. 30th,
Continuing up to and
including Saturday, Dec. 3d,
at 2 P. M. Each Day.

PRINCESS MARY'S ENGAGEMENT BRINGS JOY TO GREAT BRITAIN

Reported That Prince of Wales
Soon Will Announce His Approaching Marriage.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD,
Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau,
London, Nov. 23.

There is widespread satisfaction and joy in Great Britain that Princess Mary is going to marry an Englishman, and many expressions of hope are heard that the Prince of Wales will do likewise. Indeed, there is gossip in higher social circles that this is not far distant, and many persons expect such an announcement when the Prince returns home from his tour through India.

It is reported that King George is anxious almost to the point of insisting that the Prince of Wales marry as soon as his important public obligations, particularly his private visit to the Far East, are fulfilled.

The Washington conference and Ireland became of secondary interest in England to-day, compared with discussion of the royal romance. National well wishes go out to Princess Mary, who long ago won her way into the hearts of the people. The marriage is planned for early next year—before probably in Westminster Abbey. If an early date is set the Prince of Wales will not be able to attend the ceremony. Believing the betrothal sure, the love story, which reached its climax when the King's consent was given last Sunday.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles met at a dinner during the week when he came home on leave, but neither of them, it is gossiped, can recall the exact place or time. This is because their acquaintance remained slight until last spring, when the Viscount entered her immediate circle of friends. The romance progressed rapidly last summer at court parties.

Occasionally Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles have ridden together in town, but usually they met in the country. They visited Balmoral and last week was a member of the King's shooting party at Sandringham, where his courtship reached a happy culmination. The announcement of the engagement came as a surprise to many persons moving in court circles.

A shower of telegrams reached the palace to-day from all parts of the Empire. Viscount Lascelles arrived at Balmoral early and he and Princess Mary read them together.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The morning newspapers editorially express utmost satisfaction at the betrothal of the Princess Mary to an Englishman, and equally approve her choice of a husband in the Viscount Lascelles. It is emphasized that there would be general dis-

5,000 AT RECEPTION TO ARMS DELEGATES

City of Washington Officially Welcomes Visitors.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD,
New York Herald Bureau,
Washington, Nov. 23.

The city of Washington extended its welcome to the arms conference to-night, when the District Commissioners gave a reception in their beautiful New National Museum building.

It was the biggest crush of all the receptions given for the conference. Nearly 5,000 persons were present, among them a great many officials of the District of Columbia, representatives of the diplomatic corps, federal officials and a large company of resident soldiers folk. Each of the foreign delegations was represented.

The guests were greeted by Commissioners and Mrs. C. R. Ruggles, Commissioner and Mrs. James F. Oyster and Col. Charles Keller, engineer commissioner, and Mrs. Keller. There was music by the Marine band, and the supper was served to the guests.

Several important dinner parties were given this evening, the guests from some of them going later to the museum. The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes were to be present. A number of the foreign delegates, members of the Chinese, Netherlands and Portuguese missions being among the guests.

Admiral and Mrs. Hoover were hosts to a company of sixteen, entertaining in honor of Admiral Baron Kato, president of the Japanese delegation, and the Ambassador of Japan, Baron Shigenobu.

Senator Carlo Schanzer, chief of the Italian delegation, entertained at dinner in honor of Premier Briand, who postponed his departure for New York until to-morrow in order to be present at today, Prince Tokugawa of the Japanese delegation entertaining for him at the Shoreham.

TEA FOR BRITISH WAR MOTHER

Chief Guest at Opening of New Red Cross Nurses' Clubhouse.

A reception and tea for Mrs. Amelia E. McCudden, the British war mother, celebrated the formal opening yesterday afternoon of the new Red Cross Nurses' Clubhouse at 102 East Thirty-eighth street. Those assisting in receiving were Miss Ruth Morgan, chairman of the Red Cross nursing committee and director of hospital social service at Bellevue; Mrs. Louise Blagden, Mrs. Lloyd Derby of the Red Cross nursing committee, Miss Anna C. Maxwell, formerly superintendent of Presbyterian Hospital; Miss Florence Johnson, director of nursing the Atlantic division of the Red Cross, and Miss Isabel Evans, director of nursing for the New York county Red Cross. Mrs. Schuyler Carlton and Mrs. Thomas M. Noyes were also present.

Besides the disabled war nurses who are resident in the club the guests included a contingent from the Army Training School for Nurses, the Red Cross nurses, nurses studying at Teachers College, a group from the Presbyterian Hospital who were in the British hospital unit during the war and members of the Overseas Service League.

Removal from the old residence,
687 Fifth Ave., formerly occupied by
Mrs. W. M. B. LEEDS.

The majority of this Furniture
was then her property and sold
with the house.

A Collection of
ANTIQUE VIOLINS
SPANISH AND EARLY
AMERICAN FURNITURE

On Exhibition Saturday, Nov. 26,
Until First Sale Day, which will be
Wednesday, Nov. 30th,
Continuing up to and
including Saturday, Dec. 3d,
at 2 P. M. Each Day.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Sufferer Tallor gave a dinner and theatre party last night.

Mrs. Sanford Blesell, who was abroad for a year, is at the Plaza for the winter.

Mrs. Robert A. Gardiner will entertain a party of guests at her country house in East Hampton, L. I., to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sabin will give a dinner party at their home on November 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Columbus O'D. Iaelu will return this week from New Rochelle, N. Y.

Mrs. Charles T. Barner, who passed the summer at the Meadow Club, in Southampton, L. I., has returned to her apartment, 4 East Sixty-sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Prentice of 23 East Sixty-ninth street will give a dance in the Ritz-Carlton on the evening of December 27 for their younger daughter, Miss Kate de F. Prentice.

Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Chard, who lived at 101 Park avenue for some time, have returned Mrs. William H. Hamilton's house at 130 East Sixty-fifth street.

Mrs. Richard T. Wilson will give a luncheon at 300 Park avenue next Tuesday for the Marchioness of Donegal, who has come here after a visit in Washington.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid has arranged a dinner and dance on the lawn of December 3, at 451 Madison avenue, for her son-in-law and daughter, Sir John and Lady Ward, who will sail for England on December 6.

Mr. William Rhinelanders Stewart, whose home for several years has been at 14 East Fifty-seventh street, has taken the house at 701 Park avenue which was the home of the late Gertrude Redmond.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp, after passing a few weeks in Morristown, N. J., will return to 247 Fifth avenue on Saturday. On Sundays in January and February, Mrs. Knapp will give afternoon receptions, with music.

Among those who entertain parties at the first of the series of bachelor parties to be held in the Delia Robbia room of the Vanderbilt to-morrow evening are Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Messrs. Harold S. Vanderbilt, Alfonso de Navarro, Percy R. Farrow and Constance. A series of five bachelor dances have been arranged, beginning next Friday, when the celebration will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp, after passing a few weeks in Morristown, N. J., will return to 247 Fifth avenue on Saturday. On Sundays in January and February, Mrs. Knapp will give afternoon receptions, with music.

Mrs. Joseph Palmer Knapp, after passing a few weeks in Morristown, N. J., will return to 247 Fifth avenue on Saturday. On Sundays in January and February, Mrs. Knapp will give afternoon receptions, with music.

MAYOR WELCOMES D'INDY, COMPOSER

Introduced as Spiritual Representative of France.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD,
New York Herald Bureau,
Paris, Nov. 23.

Representative Joseph G. Cannon and his daughter, Miss Helen Cannon, have started for Danville, Ill., where they will remain until Congress reconvenes in December.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the former Secretary of the Navy, arrived in Washington yesterday to spend Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Morris Bayne.

Mrs. Murray Ledyard and Mr. J. H. Teneyck Burr were married yesterday at the home of the bride by the Rev. John C. Wright. Mr. Burr is the son of Hubert de Casanova, N. Y., was the matron of honor and Mrs. Walter Stephens Turpin was the bridesmaid.

Mrs. John C. Fremont and Mrs. Churchill Candee, who have been guests, have left for New York to remain until after the Army and Navy game.

Walter Damrosch opens the Schola Cantorum season.

The Schola Cantorum started its usual winter matinee concert and recitals yesterday in the home of Mrs. Vincent Astor, 840 Fifth avenue. The subscribers, who include men and women of prominence in society and the world of music, listened to their home recital, "The Master Singers" by Mr. Walter Damrosch, who illustrated his topic with his own piano selections.

The second recital of the Schola Cantorum, which have become fixtures in each winter's musical offerings, is to come with Wednesday 3, in the home of Mrs. William Wood, 3 East Eighty-sixth street.

LUNCHEON TO MR. GIRAUD.

Vicomte and Vicomtesse de la Jarrie of 1270 Madison avenue will entertain at luncheon to-day the French Ambassador, Mr. Gaston Giraud of the French legation to the Washington conference and special attaché to M. Albert Sarraut, Minister of the Colonies.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Capt. William S. Evans, U. S. A., and Mrs. Evans, who have come from Lexington, Ky., accompanied by the latter's mother, Mrs. William Elmer Bannister, are at the Hotel Astor for a few days before sailing for Panama. Capt. Philip Wood, U. S. A., is at the same hotel from Porto Rico.

Mrs. William Metcalf Bliss is at the Plaza, where also are Mr. E. Rollins Morse of Boston and Mrs. James A. McGee of Woodmere, L. I.

Mrs. Ruth Comfort Tronick, accompanied by her daughters, the Misses Edith and Caroline Tronick, has come from New Haven to the Plaza.

Mrs. John B. Marston has come from Shadow Brook, Cranston, N. J., to the Lorraine.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Freeland are giving a reception next Sunday afternoon at 153 West Fifty-seventh street.

Mrs. John Duncan, who lives at the Plaza, gave a dinner there last night for her grandson, Mr. Duncan Dunbar, and his wife, Mrs. Wm. Austin Tucker gave a dinner, followed by bridge, at the Plaza.

Next Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Lancashire of 7 East Seventy-fifth street will give a musicale, at which the soloists will be Mrs. Evelyn Frieh, with Frank Bibb at the piano.

Mrs. M. Lenthion Crook, Mrs. M. W. Ross and Mrs. Edward Morgan formed a party at luncheon at Pierre's yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Cogswell of Albany are at the Belmont.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas P. Gallor, presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, and Mrs. Gallor are at the Hotel Le Marquis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Archer Purington are at the Berkeley, 20 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lefferts of East Moriches, L. I., who are at the Vanderbilt, will sail on Saturday for Bermuda, where they will spend the winter.

MISS ADELADE BEDDALL WED TO S. THEODORE HODGMAN, JR

Ceremony Followed by Reception in Home of Mr. and Mrs.
L. B. Sanderson.

In St. James's Church, Madison avenue and Seventy-first street, yesterday afternoon Miss Adelaide Beddall, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Beddall, was married to Mr. S. Theodore Hodgman, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Theodore Hodgman.

The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Frank W. Crowder, rector of the church, was witnessed by relatives and friends. The bride entered the church with her brother, Mr. Edward Beddall, but was given away by her mother, Mrs. Charles Beddall.

The matron of honor and the other bridesmaids were Misses Miriam Morrison, Margaret Dana, Edith and Dorothy Hodgman, sisters of the bridegroom, and a flower girl, Mary Frances Adams.

Mr. Paul Fiske Willard was best man and Mr. Raymond Hodgman, cousin of the bridegroom, was the usher. The bridesmaids were: Donald B. Percy, Arthur Sewall, John B. Sanderson, Clinton Gilbert, Jr., and Douglas MacArthur.

The ceremony took place at 82 East Sixty-seventh street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Sanderson. When Mr. and Mrs. Hodgman return from a wedding trip they will live at 140 West Fifty-fifth street.

EPHANIAN-KITABIAN.

The wedding of Miss Zabel Frances Kitabian, vice-chairman of the Armenian General Benevolent Union for Armenian Orphan's Relief, to Mr. Paul Keckian, took place yesterday afternoon at the Armenian Convention hall, 4141 street.

Rev. William T. Walsh, officiated. Miss Katharine B. Kitabian was her sister's maid of honor, and the bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. H. A. Kitabian of Hoboken. The best man was Mr. John Marokian, while Messrs. G. K. Sarafian, S. Roberts Taylor, Sempad S. Sarafian, and George A. Sarafian, and James G. Burenyan acted as ushers.

Mrs. Therese Matern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Matern, of 46 West Eighty-eighth street, was married to James L. O'Connor yesterday in the church of St. Gregory the Great, West Nineteenth street.

Mrs. O'Connor, a graduate of the Holy Family university, is connected with the United States Steel Company. He served in the Marine Corps during the war. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Jacob Matern. The bride was Miss Anne Matern, who was a member of the Holy Family university. The wedding was followed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor.

MRS. HANNA LEAVES BEQUESTS TO FRIENDS

Residue of $150,000 Estate
Goes to Two Daughters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The will of Mrs. C. Augusta Hanna, widow of Senator Mark Hanna of Ohio, was filed to-day for probate. The document was executed April 17, 1914, and disposes only of the widow's estate, as her interest in her husband's property ended with her death.

The value of the estate is estimated at $150,000, of which $100,000 is in personal property and $50,000 in real estate. No mention is made in the will of the children of the son, Dan R. Hanna, who died shortly before his mother. The son had been named as co-executor of the will with Frank E. Brown, described as confidential agent.

Specific bequests in the will include $25,000 to a friend, Mary Hatch; $5,000 to her son, Maggie Maloney, and various other bequests to friends and charities. The residue of the estate is to be divided equally between the two daughters, Miss Mabel Hanna Parsons and Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, wife of Senator Medill McCormick.

FUNERAL OF COUNTESS D'EU.

Services in Drexel for Daughter of Dom Pedro II.

DREXEL, France, Nov. 23.—Funeral services were held here to-day for Countess D'Eu, daughter of former Emperor Dom Pedro II. of Brazil, in the presence of the family. The body of the Countess, who died in Paris last week, will be placed in the Orleans family vault here.

Among the notables, the Spanish Ambassador and members of the Brazilian Embassy attended the services.

DOUGLAS STEWART GRANT.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The London Times announced that Douglas Stewart Grant died at Rotterdam Wednesday. He was the son of Beach Grant of New York and Paris and a brother of Adele, Countess of Essex, and of the Viscountess of Bretil.

ADMIRAL LEAVITT C. LOGAN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Rear Admiral Leavitt C. Logan, retired, died to-day at the Naval Hospital here. He was 73 years old. Admiral Logan was born in Medina county, Ohio, entered the Naval Academy in 1863, and was graduated four years later. He was retired in 1903. His funeral will be at Arlington on Saturday.

DR. GEORGE T. BURMAN.

POMONA, Cal., Nov. 23.—Dr. George T. Burman, 57, a member of the faculty of the University of California, died at the home of his sister here yesterday. Dr. Burman was known as an authority on Latin and the Romance languages.

HOT SPRINGS TO CELEBRATE.

Numerous Dinner Parties Arranged for Thanksgiving Day.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD,
Hot Springs, Ark., Nov. 23.—Thanksgiving here is to be celebrated by the opening to-morrow night of the new dance room and by several dinner and supper parties. One dinner party, which will be the occasion for the reunion of the Ingalls family, will be given at the Ingalls home by Mr. and Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls, who arrived yesterday from New York.

To-day there were several tea parties in the home. Mrs. John Clinton Grey of Newport entertained several friends during the morning.

With Mr. and Mrs. Dallas B. Pratt were Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Landon. Mrs. Delaney Astor Kane entertained for her sister, Mrs. Augustus Jay of Newport.

WAR HONORS AWAIT VAUGHN.

New Zealand Officers Seek Here
In This Country.

The American Consul-General in Auckland, New Zealand, transmitted yesterday to Capt. John Ayres of the missing persons bureau at Police Headquarters a request for information regarding the relatives of John Vaughn. Special honors have been accorded Vaughn by the New Zealand Expeditionary Force, and L. C. Purdie, officer in charge of the war record and record office of these troops, expects to confer upon Vaughn's relatives a memorial plaque.

MISS BACARDI'S WEDDING.

To Become Bride of Mr. William
J. Doran To-morrow.